

November 🍁 Flat and Jumping Clinic

Fox Valley Pony club will be hosting a clinic with Kira Staines for USPC members,
USPC Horsemasters members and Non USPC riders.

Saturday, November 20th • Bittersweet Farm, 344 County Rd. FF, Pickett, WI

About the clinician: Kira Steines is a C-3 graduate from River Run Pony Club. She has been training and teaching for 15 years. In 2005, she spent several months with Cherie Gaebel, a national examiner and advanced event rider, before taking a job for Winley Farm, out of Millbrook, NY. Winley is a holsteiner breeding facility and an international show jumping barn. There she worked with Carsten Jaeger, an international show jumper, Margaret Beeman, a natural horsemanship trainer and world class trainer and coach for the US Combined Driving Team, and most notably, Debra Wiedmaier, a FEI dressage trainer and rider. After working with Debra, she realized her calling was in dressage. She took a job working for an upper level rider in Robert Dover's training camp, honing in on dressage skills with the help of Robert Dover, Katherine Bateson-Chandler, and Helen Fendell. In 2007 she had the opportunity to spend a total of 7 months in Germany in two of the remaining German Masters stables, Hubertus Schmidt and Johann Hinneman. When she arrived back in the US she continued working for Shelly Francis, based out of Loxahatchee, FL. Shelly is an FEI Grand Prix rider, whom she worked for as assistant trainer and barn manager for almost 2 years, before moving back to central Wisconsin to begin her own Keystone Dressage company.

It is highly recommended to take a flat lesson before a jumping lesson
